

Annual Statewide Conference

Improving Care for Opioid-Exposed Newborns (ICON)

Virtual Conference

Substance-Exposed Newborns and Families: Creating a Community of Practice

April 9, 2024 * 8 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Register Today!

<https://go.uvm.edu/aw6sd>

Conference Plan

Keynote Presentation

Clinical Utility of Perinatal Toxicology Testing

Presented by Davida Schiff, MD, Director of Perinatal and Family-based SUDs Care, Founder of the HOPE Clinic, Massachusetts General Hospital

The New Academy of Breastfeeding Medicine

Guideline for Breastfeeding and Substance Use: Putting it Into Practice

Presented by Adrienne Pahl, MD, Assistant Professor of Neonatology, VCHIP Faculty and Molly Rideout, MD, Professor of Pediatrics, VCHIP Faculty

Peer Recovery and Parenting: The Power of Lived Experience

Presented by parents with lived experience and partners involved in peer recovery work

Parental Education and The Family Care Plan in 2024

Presented by Michelle Shepard, MD, PhD, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Lead VCHIP Faculty

SCAN THIS CODE
TO REGISTER

Questions: ✉ vchip.pqcvt@med.uvm.edu